Dr. Sarah Tehseen

Presents

Massive hemorrhage and its management in pediatric patients

Dr. Sarah Tehseen is a pediatric hematologist and transfusion medicine physician in Saskatoon. She completed her pediatric heme onc fellowship at CHOA/Emory in 2016 and her transfusion medicine fellowship at the medical College of Wisconsin in 2017. Her areas of interest include hemoglobinopathies and pediatric transfusion processes.

Objectives:
1. Definition of pediatric massive hemorrhage
2. Rationale for development of a pediatric massive transfusion protocol
3. Overview of pediatric massive transfusion protocol
4. Development of MTP in adult population and evidence of its benefit
5. Interactive overview of steps of MTP activation and conclusion
6. Unanswered questions and discussion

For WebEx access follow the link below and mute your mic:
https://ehealthsask.webex.com/ehealthsask/j.php?MTID=m71511f198191fca75356871f4d5f5a0d